

EASTER RIDDLE HUNT

Each riddle below will lead you to a hidden egg in each of the City's seven parks. Each egg will have a word used to solve Easter Bunny's secret phrase! Bring the completed phrase to City Hall (3515 Broad Street) by April 3rd for a prize!

Riddle #1: A sport you play without using your hands, the crowd would cheer if this field had stands.

Riddle #2: For good luck, hang me in your home. But in this game, I can be thrown.

Riddle #3: Although the color of this place is a majority blue, the kids that play here are a happy crew.

Riddle #4: Where the water tower once stood, there's a circular bed. But it's not a place where you could lay your head

Riddle #5: When you stand here, you're in the town's center. Whether you have two or four legs, this spot's a thirst quencher.

Riddle #6: A place for performance, with seats made of stone. Located in the south, for your talents to be shown.

Riddle #7: Where boats slip into water, like ducks to a pond. This place is where adventures beyond the shore are spawned.
